CLERK

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEW MEXICO

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
Plaintiff,
vs.
PETER CALVERT-CATA,
Defendant.

No. 16-MJ-03705

~~SEALED~~ PROTECTIVE ORDER

THIS MATTER came before the Court on the United States' Unopposed Motion for Protective Order. (Doc. 12). The Court, having reviewed the motion and noting that it is unopposed, and being fully advised in the premises, hereby enters the following Protective Order:

1. This Protective Order governs all discovery material in any format (written or electronic) that was provided by the government to defense counsel on November 22, 2016, in compliance with Rule 26.2 discovery material in the above-captioned case.

2. The Defendant shall comply with the following restrictions with regard to the 26.2 discovery material:

a. Access to the discovery material is restricted to defense counsel of record, defense investigators, paralegals, law clerks, and any defense expert (collectively referred to as the "defense team");

b. Other than as described herein, the defense team may create internal copies of the discovery material, but all material must be kept in a secure location. Other than their own copies, the defense team shall not reproduce or otherwise disclose the discovery material under any circumstances without an order from the Court, except as evidence during pre-trial motions, trial and appeal of this matter;

c. The defense team may show and display material produced in discovery to the Defendant except for any minor victims' personal information such as address and telephone numbers; and

d. Any discovery material relating to any minor victims' personal information that is filed in connection with pre-trial motions, trial, sentencing, or other matters before this Court, shall be filed under seal and shall remain sealed until otherwise ordered by this Court. This does not entitle either party to seal their filings as a matter of course. The parties are required to comply in all respects to the relevant local and federal rules of criminal procedure pertaining to the sealing of court documents.
